In 1984, the late John Randolph Price introduced to the world the International Hour For Peace, which called for the simultaneous ceremony at locations all over the world at Noon Greenwich Mean Time on December 31st of each year. John and his wife Jan founded The Quartus Foundation, a spiritual research and communications organization located near San Antonio, Texas, that continues their work. The Hour For Peace (also known as World Healing Day and World Peace Day) has been observed and attended around the world by millions of devoted people of all faiths and philosophies joining in meditation, prayer, music, dance, poetry, and other modalities to break down the walls of hate and separation and move us closer to lasting Peace on Earth.

The event has occurred in Fort Collins every year since 1986, sponsored by a wide variety of area businesses, nonprofit organizations, and faith groups interested in promoting peace, cross cultural exchange, and communication around many community concerns. In 2013, we expanded into Loveland and Greeley. The programs include prayers, blessings, speakers, music, and information from a variety of local faith, peace and humanitarian groups, along with the original John Randolph Price World Healing Meditation.

2018 is the 33rd International Hour For Peace and the theme of our Northern Colorado programs is "Peace Around the World" to commemorate the 100th anniversary of Armistice Day (November 11th, 1918), the 70th Anniversary of the 1948 United Nations Declaration of Universal Human Rights, and the 40th Anniversary of the 1978 United Nations Declaration that Peace is a Universal Human Right.

Funding from sponsors helps cover the many costs involved in putting on The Peacemakers' Super Bowl: our website, publicity and advertising, ID badges for the ushers, coffee and tea for participants, printing of the program booklets, etc. As a sponsor, you will receive a wide variety of media coverage, an ad in the program booklets, a link to your website on our site, the opportunity to put materials on our information tables, and best of all, the satisfaction of helping create peace in our troubled world.

Business/Corporate sponsorship is $200. Nonprofit sponsors need to provide $100 or more in cash, goods, services, and/or volunteers for the event, or any combination thereof. For supporters, no donation is too big or too small! Donations can be given to anyone involved with the event or mailed to Northern Colorado coordinator Dr. Victoria Gardner, 2051 Grays Peak Drive, #101, Loveland, CO 80538.
